

Course Summary:	The course will provide institutional and field staff information relating to manipulation by inmates and probationers. Proper supervision in custodial settings and in the community will be defined both legally and morally. Inmate and peace officer typologies will be presented as well as over familiarity, staff misconduct and improper management of offenders. The tools of an inmate/probationer set-up will be presented as well as steps peace officers can use to identify and protect themselves from inmate/probationer manipulation.
------------------------	--

Performance Objectives:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Identify legal and moral considerations of inmate supervision. 2. Identify ways the human mind can be manipulated. 3. Identify traits associated with people who are targets for manipulation. 4. Identify the five steps of a "setup" of staff. 5. Identify five of the eight tools used to setup staff members. 6. Identify eight of the twelve protectors staff can use to avoid setups.

Course Outline
Day	Time Begin (24 Hour)	Time End (24 Hour)	Subject or Topic	Instructional Methodology
1	0800	1000	Introduction, legal and moral issues of the keepers and the kept, policies	Lecture Group Discussion
1	1000	1200	Inmate and staff typologies, victimization	Lecture Group Discussion Group Exercise
1	1200	1300	lunch
1	1300	1500	Inmate set-ups, case scenarios, documentation	Lecture Group Discussion Group Exercise
1	1500	1700	Protectors and actions to take, personal inventory Post test, class review and evaluation	Lecture Group Discussion Group Exercise