

Course Summary:	This course will teach trainees techniques involved in interviewing victims and witnesses of crimes and the interrogation of persons suspected of crimes. This course will also teach the methods involved and the various approaches utilized in these techniques.
------------------------	---

Performance Objectives:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Explain the differences between interviewing and interrogating 2) List the major interview and interrogation techniques 3) Describe the major sources of information used in interviewing and interrogation 4) Discuss the major psychological factors involved.

Course Outline
Day	Time Begin (24 Hour)	Time End (24 Hour)	Subject or Topic	Instructional Methodology
1	0800	1000	Introduction, historical context for interviewing and interrogation, laws pertaining to interviewing and interrogation	Lecture Group Discussion
1	1000	1200	Changes in perception and practice; use of various consultants, using other sources of information effectively	Lecture Group Discussion
1	1200	1300	lunch
1	1300	1500	Physical setting for interviewing and interrogation, introduction to interviewing-various approaches, recording methods	Lecture Group Discussion
1	1500	1700	Examination of psychological aspects of mixing interviewing and interrogation together; intro to interrogation; wrap up and evaluation	Lecture Group Discussion